

HARRIER HOTLINE

Hawk Mountain needs reports of northern harriers in Pennsylvania, a state listed species showing steep declines across the state.

© T.L. Sepkovic

Have you seen harriers in your field?

Look for:

- Low flying hawk with long wings
- Distinctive white rump patch
- Sightings from May- July needed
- Owl-like facial disk
- Males are pale gray above white underneath, with black wing-tips
- Females and young are warm brown
- Ground nesting in tall grass, marsh vegetation, hay or fallow fields.

© D. Brandes

© D. Brandes

REPORT HARRIER SIGHTINGS BY
SCANNING THE QR CODE,
OR CALL

BRACKEN BROWN AT 570-943-3411 EX 103

