

Color Me Wild!

Many animals migrate. Monarch butterflies fly south to Mexico. Snow geese travel to Canada to nest. Salmon migrate upstream to lay their eggs. Citizen scientists like you can view these migrations at different times throughout the year. In the meantime, help Cosmo and Terra find these hidden objects.

Can You Find:

Binoculars
Notebook

Spotting scope on tripod
Monarch butterfly

Snow goose (total of 8)
Salmon